Social Media & You: A Parent's Guide

Have you ever wondered what your children do on their phones? How are they communicating and with whom? What's a streak? Do they need both an Instagram account and a Snap Chat account? How can you monitor their use and keep them safe? How much screen time is too much screen time?

District 303 has assembled a panel of local experts to help answer these questions and more. The evening will include the basics of social media outlets being used by teenagers, tips on how to monitor your child's use of social media, legal ramifications with inappropriate use of social media, as well as student's perspectives. Social media can be overwhelming for parents and it's important for you to understand what's available to students and how they're using it.

Panel members include:

Circuit Court Judge Clint Hull

Rich Wistocki, retired Naperville PD and national speaker

Chuck Pierce, SCPD

Representative from the State's Attorney's Office

A parent

D303 High School students

Carol Smith, D303 Director of Communications and Community Relations

Megan Mkrtshjan, D303 Assistant Director of Curriculum
